Farr Law Firm Welcomes New Associate Attorney Kimberly N. Rubino

Kimberly N. Rubino has joined Farr Law Firm as an associate attorney becoming a member of the firm's litigation team. Rubino worked as an Assistant State Attorney for the Twentieth Judicial Circuit prior to joining the firm.

PUNTA GORDA – October 5, 2020 – Farr Law Firm is pleased to announce the addition of Kimberly N. Rubino as an associate attorney in the Punta Gorda office. Rubino is the newest member of the firm's experienced litigation team.

Rubino grew up in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida and moved to Charlotte County in middle school. Growing up with a disabled sister who required the use of the legal system inspired her to go into the field of law. “I knew I wanted to help others like those attorneys helped my family,” said Rubino.

Prior to joining the Farr Law Firm, Rubino was an Assistant State Attorney for the Twentieth Judicial Circuit in Fort Myers and Port Charlotte. Rubino earned her Juris Doctor degree from the Stetson University College of Law in 2017. In 2014 she received her Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice from Florida International University.

“With her strong academic credentials and prior experience, Kimberly is an important addition to our civil litigation team. We look forward to bringing her insights and advocacy skills to bear for the benefit of our litigation clients,” said managing partner, David A. Holmes.
