Kelsey J. Veitengruber Named a Farr Law Firm Shareholder

Farr Law Firm is pleased to announce that attorney Kelsey J. Veitengruber has been named shareholder in the firm, effective January 1, 2021.

PUNTA GORDA – January 12, 2021 – Farr Law Firm is pleased to announce the promotion of Kelsey J. Veitengruber as a shareholder. This elected position was effective January 1, 2021. Veitengruber joined the firm in 2017 and focuses her legal practice in general civil litigation in both state and federal courts, including matters related to insurance coverage, construction and contract disputes, real estate and property matters, and mortgage foreclosures. Veitengruber also regularly counsels individual and business clients on various legal matters, including risk mitigation, contract drafting and negotiation, and employment matters. Prior to joining Farr Law Firm, Veitengruber worked for nearly four years at the Tampa office of a nationally ranked law firm with 300+ lawyers, where she focused her practice on insurance coverage defense.

“Kelsey is a polished advocate. Her skill and depth of experience in civil litigation make her an excellent addition to our shareholders ranks,” said manager partner, David Holmes.

Veitengruber is on the board of the Charlotte County Chamber of Commerce and the Visual Arts Center Endowment Trust. She is also a member of the Campaign Cabinet for the United Way of Charlotte County and the Steering Committee for Leadership Charlotte. Veitengruber received her Juris Doctor degree, magna cum laude, from the University of Florida Levin College of Law and her Bachelor’s degree in Business Administration, magna cum laude, from the University of South Florida.
